

Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangements (MEWA)

A Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangement (MEWA) is a type of MET for union employees that is self-funded and receives tax-exempt status. They provide various insurance benefits. In addition, they are

1. required by law to have an employment-related common bond; and
2. subject to state regulation by the state's Commissioner's office.